

From: Timothy Preston
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 9:51am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe the proposed Microsoft settlement is a bad idea. Microsoft has ignored similar settlement terms in the past, and has shown little regard for the seriousness of their crime throughout the trial. The settlement offer currently on the table represents a negligence in the duty of the Attorney General's office in protecting the American people from this type of criminal behavior. It is sad indeed when a corporation can become large enough to buy out the integrity of the US government.

Tim Preston "And is your place in heaven tpreston@alumni.princeton.edu worth giving up these kisses?"
http://homepage.mac.com/tpreston - Tori Amos